Our Indirect Claims

NEW YORK, April —A Washington special says Sen Banks called on Secretary Fish yesterday according to instructions from the Committee on Foreign Affairs to consult regarding the proposed action of the House on Peters' resolution advising the withdrawal of the claim for indirect damages. Secretary Fish said he was not in favor of modifying the case and knew of no other member of the Cabinet who was. He did not think it possible to make any modification at the same time he is said to have admitted that he did not expect a favorable award for indirect damages. At a Cabinet meeting which followed Fish communicated the substance of the conference which was unqualifiedly approved.

A strong lobby representing the owners of Alabama claims has been in Washington the last few weeks endeavoring to influence the Administration and Congress to withdraw the objectionable portion of our case.

Reverdy Johnson has written a letter to Peters declaring his approval of his resolution.

The Chicago Times has the following semi official statement from Washington on the Alabama claims: It is now very generally understood here that Government insists upon maintaining its original position for the sole purpose of securing arbitration. The principle involved and the magnitude of the questions are great. The gain to be obtained by its decision has seemingly been overlooked in the discussion of the case. A decision disallowing the claims would really be of more advantage to this Government for future emergencies than any award of damages for the purpose of having this principle arbitrated and settled for all time to come so that it might be a precedent in future complications. There is no doubt but that this Government would consent to waive any payment of money damages which might be awarded in case of a possible decision adverse to England.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Gen Walker Superintendent of the Census has issued the Statement of Wealth Taxation and Public Indebtedness forming part of the Census of 1870. The true value of the real and personal estate of the United States $30 068 518 507 being nearly double the amount in 1860 when it was $16 159 616 068. Such increase is unparalleled in any country. And yet we are told that our country isn't prosperous!

While our own Government is considering the policy of going through the farce of forbidding the slaughter of the buffalo that of England has resolved to take precautions against the threatened extinction of elephants in the Madras Presidency. It appears that the increase of population, with its result of increase of cultivated land, has narrowed the bounds of the elephant range, and railroads and sportsmen are rapidly destroying the whole race.

The late elections says the New York Herald, establish the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbroken around the administration, and that the bolters will be as powerless against the re election of Grant in 1872 as were the bolters of 1832 against Jackson or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politician is an old customer and the American people have learned his tricks and know how to deal with him whatever the fancy costume in which he may appear.

We do not know when we have read a more comfortable or less agitating prediction than this: Alphonse Adhemar declares that the earth is covered by a deluge once in 10 500 years. He reasons it out in a way which fairly impresses us albeit we do not in the least comprehend it. All we know is that a gigantic polar glacier by its disruption overwhelms a hemisphere and to make it complete the world is simultaneously overwhelmed at each end. But, as this is not to happen until A D ... we find it impossible to get up the least excitement on the subject.

A priest of Toulouse has published a book in which he informs the world that the final extinction of all mundane things will come in the year 19.. at three minutes thirty one and thirteen seventeen hundredths seconds past 7 o'clock A M on the 15th of July. We are very glad he is so exact ... the matter otherwise we should be ... his prediction having been several times disappointed on the same subject. But as he has brought it down to so fine a point of course there can be no doubt about it. We should be thankful for so long a notice and there will be no excuse if any one is not ready when the time comes.

The Vancouver Register learns that the case of William B Bird indicted for the murder of ... at Sitka in February 1870 was again continued for another six months upon the application of the ... Attorney and on the ground of the absence of material witnesses for the prosecution. Bird has been already in confinement twenty ... months. His physique ... was strong ... he was broken ... and was suffering from ... chronic disorders on account of confinement in a dark cell and lack of exercise. In consequence of which the Court ordered the Marshal to allow him exercise in the open air each day not exceeding one hour.

The publication of the Idaho Herald lately suspended will be resumed at an early day.

He had a large cut in his abdomen and had jumped from the Pacific street wharf after stabbing himself evidently with the intention of committing suicide. His name is Adam Billmeyer and a few days since he was robbed by Jacob Harriman a sneak thief at the St Louis Hotel on Pacific street of eleven greenbacks of the denomination of $50 each of which the bulk was recovered by the police. He cannot get his money until the case has been tried and as the landlord told him he could not have board another day without the coin, and he was a stranger here he concluded to die. His wound was dressed and he was sent to the hospital.

He says Mr. Morgan commenced pile driving last Sunday, and is driving about thirty-five piles per day. Hallett has graded the miles already, and is at work on the south side of the creek. FURTHER EVIDENCE OF SKILL.

A Pea Successfully Extracted from the Ear, after having been imbedded against the Drum of the Ear for Eight Months

PORTLAND, April 8, 1872.

To the Public:

I hereby certify to the skill of Dr Aborn in the treatment of my son. In August, last he got a large pea into his ear. Physicians were applied to without success. The pea soon caused inflammation and a fungus growth spread over the pea and filled up the entire ear, and of late a bloody discharge oozed from the ear and I became greatly alarmed about his perilous condition. After satisfying myself that Dr Aborn was a skillful surgeon in all such cases I applied to him on Wednesday last with my son and placed him under his care. He destroyed the fungus growth so as to make a passage back to the pea and on the fourth day he succeeded in removing all the fungus growth and disease of the ear. Then by the aid of his scientific instruments we could plainly see the pea embedded against the drum of the ear. The pea was removed the same evening without pain. The hearing in that ear, which was destroyed is now by his treatment restored, so that he can hear a watch tick. Only for the timely aid of the skill of Dr Aborn I feel satisfied that my son would have lost his life. It was through the card of Capt Pease that I applied to Dr Aborn so I give this card to the public with the view that it may be the means of benefiting some one.

Another Cure of a Chronic Disease of the Stomach, Liver and Nervous System of Ten Years' Standing.

TO THE PUBLIC—I feel it my duty to make the following statement of facts in my case for the benefit of those who are similarly afflicted. For ten years I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint Dyspepsia and a Nervous Disease. My left arm was partially paralyzed and a general depression of the whole system. Restless nights, almost entirely unfit for business. Through the advice of Jackson Powell of Powell's Valley I was induced to apply to Dr Aborn and after two weeks treatment, I consider myself cured. In fact I feel like a new man, such wonderful change has been produced by his successful mode of treatment. I have found the Doctor kind hearted and charitable. I reside at Sandy across from Powell's valley. JAMES BRAND

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1872.

The Herald's "Vital Issue"

Freights and fares on railroads, says the [illegible], are regulated by law in some of the States, and why not in Oregon? We suppose that where railroad companies incorporate under laws or regulations which expressly reserve to the legislative authority the power to fix rates of transportation, there is no question that the legislative authority may exercise that power. Such is the reservation in those States whose Legislatures regulate railway freights and fares. It is done in pursuance of law. Such a condition is part of the terms under which the franchise is taken. But in this State and a number of others the conditions are wholly different. Railroad companies organizing here incorporate under an old and general law, which not only does not reserve to the legislative authority the power to fix rates of transportation, but expressly declares that the railroad companies shall have that power. And this power is confirmed to them irrevocably by the Constitution of the State which declares that "vested corporate rights" shall not be destroyed or impaired. This is a plain statement of the whole matter. It is clear to every person's understanding. It explains why rates of transportation on railways may be regulated by legislative enactment in some States and not in others.

No elaboration could make this subject clearer. The plain statement we have given shows why it is that this matter is not an "issue" at all in this election, and never can become an "issue" in any election in this State. The Herald is calling for an enactment which no Legislature in this State will ever pass, because it is beyond the scope of legislative authority to pass it. When the incorporation law says expressly that a company incorporating under it shall have certain distinctly specified rights, and the Constitution of the State says as explicitly that those rights shall not be impaired or destroyed by subsequent legislative enactments, where is the sense in claiming that both the Constitution and laws can be overridden? Such assertions are foolish babble. They are rankly absurd and ridiculous. They are contemptible drivel, of which any one who has sense enough to respect himself should be ashamed.

It is asserted further by the Herald that the Republican party is pledged to give a monopoly certain additional rights and powers. But those rights and powers, which it is asserted that the Republican party is pledged to give to railroads for the oppression of the people, are already possessed by the railroads and have been in their possession ever since they were incorporated. Until this political campaign came on and the dire exigencies of the situation, resulting from the extreme poverty of the Democratic party in ideas for the campaign, arose, nothing was said or thought about it. But it became necessary to invent something. Some humbug "issue," suited to the Democratic habit and constitution, was wanted. The "great Chinese question" was played out. The "vital issues" of the last campaign, including the resolution demanding repudiation of the national debt, had become obsolete. Taxation of United States bonds was no longer to be thought of. In fact the whole stock of Democratic ideas, the humbug issues of former campaigns, was exploded. These all had gone into the limbo of vanity, the paradise of fools. Hence it became necessary to start some new absurdity that would serve the purposes of a campaign. The Democratic party subsists on shams and impostures. So the Herald, as the chief organ for this State, got up this "great issue" which it is now parading. That paper has about six weeks more to devote to the subject. Then the election will be over, and the whole matter will be forever forgotten, just as the "great issues" raised by its party in former campaigns have been. The Legislature will never consider the subject, no matter which party controls that body, because the Constitution expressly places it beyond the scope of legislative powers. By this time every person of common sense understands it.

Says the Chicago Evening Mail: No doubt a few honest, though Grant-defying Republicans, will assemble at Cincinnati. Their surprise will no doubt be great when they find that body wholly under the control of men of Democratic tendencies and antecedents. They will find themselves in the condition of the beguiled traveler who stepped into a restaurant and bought of the presiding darkey what purported by the "shingle" to be "Hot Mince Pie." 'Twas as cold to his teeth as an iceberg. "What," said the victim to Sambo, "I thought your sign said hot mince pies." "Yis sah, yis sah," said Sambo; "but dat's de name of de pie, massa—de name of de pie!" Let the few Republicans who go and find themselves surrounded by a crowd of Democrats, remember that "Liberal Republican is "de name of de pie"—and be happy.

The Baltimore American, a trustworthy and leading Republican paper says: "It is due to the party to state a fact within our knowledge. The strongest persuasions and arguments have been employed to induce Mr. Colfax to consent that his name shall go before the Philadelphia Convention for nomination to the Presidency. He has firmly refused. He has said, 'Gen. Grant merits the confidence of the nation. I will not oppose him.' And upon this the editor recommends the renomination of the old ticket because Grant and Colfax are lucky men, and will impress the country with a habit of success.'"

The very best printers and compositors in Canada only make ten dollars a week. In this country they average between twenty and forty dollars a week. And yet we are told that "a suit of clothes can be bought cheaper" across the border, but that is little compensation for the great disparity in wages. Statesmanlike, "our John Burnett" thinks that working people would all be better off under free trade.

A collector of revenue in Vermont has resigned because of a deficit in his accounts. That is better than the last Democratic collector of federal revenue in Oregon did. There was a deficit in his accounts, but he did not resign. He held on till he was turned out, and the deficit has not yet been made good. His name is John Adair of Astoria.

The last Democratic Vice President, A. H. Stephens, is not to be caught with the [illegible] of possibility. He scouts this expedition as a [illegible] "Artful Dodgers" [illegible] of the Democracy, and [illegible] of Mr. [illegible], chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

The $75,000 Steal.

Several labored efforts have been made by the Herald to refute the statements of Mr. McCully relative to the offer of the P. T. Co. to construct the Locks at Oregon City for $75,000 less than the sum given to Miller, Ford & Co. for the same work. It is perceived by the "organ" that these statements make the case wear a very ugly look for its party. Hence its attempts to parry by mean insinuations against Mr. McCully. That paper should know that Mr. McCully has lived many years in Oregon; that he is a business man and citizen whose integrity is above reproach; that his word for anything is as good as his bond, and that he stands too high in public esteem in this State to be so easily assailed by any comparatively unknown person, be he who he may.

About a year ago, the Oregon City Enterprise (Dem.) had a controversy with the Herald on this very subject of legislation on the Locks. We quote here what the Enterprise said on the 12th May, 1871:

> In the Herald of the 5th inst., we find a long and labored article in justification of the Legislature for passing the west side lock bill. The principal grounds taken in this article are, that the P. T. Co. did not propose to construct similar locks to those of the Wallamet Locks Company; that their charges for passing boats were different, and that it provided for the payment of $125,000 out of the internal improvement fund during the course of the work.
>
> To show that the Herald is misled in the whole matter, we here produce the proceedings in the House on the subject by which it will be seen that an injustice was committed, and, instead of the P. T. Company's bill being different from the Wallamet Locks Company's proposition the truth is, the P. T. Company proposed to accept the west side bill for the sum of $125,000. * *
> It was not our purpose to ever have alluded to this matter again, but we cannot consent to allow certain parties to shoulder this thing on the Democratic party, and having heretofore opposed the west side lock bill, we feel it our duty to show that we are acting for the interest of the people. And as we believe a great "public wrong" has been committed, we protest against its being made a party matter. Following are the official proceedings pertinent to the subject, and we ask the reader to give them a careful consideration. And we might as well here state that the P. T. Company had no bill before the Legislature after Thursday, Sept. 22, as it was then referred to a special committee, which strangled it, and never allowed it to come back again.

This is explicit enough. It will be seen that the Enterprise, certainly as good a Democratic paper as the Herald, protested against allowing this $75,000 swindle to be shouldered on the Democratic party. But the Herald puts it on the party and attempts to defend it. The Enterprise in the same issue, after quoting extracts from the legislative journals showing proceedings in regard to the Locks bills, said further:

> It will be seen from the above, that the Legislature refused to allow the Governor to let the contract to the lowest bidder; and they refused to specify that the State would only pay the $200,000 of their value when the State shall be authorized to take them; and they further refused to insert "gross receipts" in place of "net profits." It will also be seen the talk that the P. T. Company did not propose to construct similar locks to those of the Wallamet Company is simply bosh, as the above proceedings show the minority report proposed to insert in this very bill the name of the P. T. Company in place of Wallamet Locks Company.

Isn't that plain enough? The fact of this $75,000 steal is established beyond all cavil. The truth of the Republican platform is vindicated. So that, while Republicans are as anxious as any other persons that the Falls shall be opened to navigation, they think in the first place that it should have been done without plundering the school fund, and in the second place that if nothing would do but the school fund must be plundered, $75,000 was a sum worth saving.

Purification of Public Offices.

The following considerate paragraph is from an article in the New York Herald:

> The repeated evidences of official venality are humiliating to our national pride; yet their persistent exposure by the administration and its friends, and the prompt remedy applied by President Grant whenever a case of corruption is established against a public officer, are encouraging and hopeful signs of a better condition of affairs in the future. The demoralizing effect of the war, and the moral looseness consequent upon the sudden accession of a new and hungry party to office at the commencement of an era of extraordinary and lavish expenditure, left official corruption behind them as their natural fruit. The administration of Andrew Johnson, with its Tenure of Office law and its entire destruction of responsibility, only served to aggravate the evils engendered by the war, and left to Gen. Grant a government permeated by dishonesty. It has been the task of the President to ferret out crime and to purify every department of the public service. The labor has been herculean, and the devotion with which Gen. Grant has persevered in it shows alike his honesty of purpose and his great strength of will. His political opponents, who pretend that he has commenced the work of a reform at a late day, fail to show a single instance in which the Government has not been more honestly administered under him than it was prior to the commencement of his term of office. The enormous revenue frauds, now being prosecuted to final judgment, ceased almost immediately after his accession to power, and from his first year of office to the present moment official corruption has been rooted out as soon as its existence has been satisfactorily shown. There may be more left for General Grant to do; but we have confidence that he will not disappoint the trust reposed in him by the people of New Hampshire and Connecticut, and soon to be expressed by the people of all the States in the Union. At Washington and elsewhere he will continue the work of purification regardless of personal considerations. It is in this belief that the two pioneer States have taken their positions under his standard for the Presidential campaign, and it is in this belief that his re-election for another term will be made almost unanimous in the Electoral College.

The Alabama Bill.

ENGLISH ESTIMATE OF THE AMERICAN CHARGES AND THE TOTAL.

From the New York Herald, April 5th.

A London evening newspaper, which enjoys the reputation of being pretty well informed as to the current and purport of the Ministerialist ideas of the members of the Queen's Government, announced in its issue of yesterday that it is alleged generally in London that the American bill of damages for losses sustained by the operations of the Alabama and other privateers built or fitted out in British waters amounts to $340,000,000, the aggregates of the items of charge being classed under two separate heads thus:—$140,000,000 for losses sustained from the destruction of American ships and cargoes by privateer vessels built or fitted out in English waters, and $200,000,000 for expenses incurred by the Washington Government in pursuing the privateers. It is stated, further, that these figures form part of the American case before the Geneva Arbitration Court. The writer, evidently, professes to be astounded at the amount of the grand total, but he does not intimate that England is inclined to make any offer of settlement or for the discharge of the full bill. In this may be found the lâches of the English position all through from the beginning. John Bull is kept in a state of continual irritation relative to his liability to pay a terribly heavy bill, but we have not seen at any time where he has been advised to go manfully forward and inquire of the creditor what statement he will make in the original demand, and how much he will take in a round sum for a receipt in full. Here is where the English press has neglected its plain duty towards its venerable client, even during the penitential season of the past Lent, and thus permitted Mr. Bull to sit down to his Easter Day dinner unscreened of his many and weighty sins against the American [illegible].

OREGON.

The Odd Fellows at the Dalles propose to celebrate the 26th at home.

The Dalles has a skating rink, which is voted a success in every particular.

Mr. William Blanton has discovered a quarry of genuine marble on his place, a few miles south of Eugene City.

A wagon and machine shop has been started at North Yamhill, also a planing mill—the latter got up entirely in Oregon.

Salem has a Zetagathenean Society. Its object is said to be to advance the transmagnificanbancuality of its members.

James A. Waymire, heretofore engaged in the practice of law at Salem, has removed to Sacramento, California, where he purposes to reside in future.

Mr. Bewley, who has just come over from Tillamook, reports that the snow on the Coast Range Mountains is very deep—coming up to the saddle-skirts in some places.

The Odd Fellows of Salem had made preparations for an excursion to Aurora on the 26th, but have changed the programme, and will picnic on the Fair grounds on that occasion.

The Mountaineer has the following from Grant county: "The grain and fruit crops are looking well, and a large yield is expected. Live stock of all kinds are doing well. The miners are all at work, as they have an abundance of water, and most of them are getting rich."

The following nominations were made by the Lane County Republican Convention which met at Eugene City last Saturday: For State Senator, W. W. Bristow; Representatives, N. Martin, C. W. Washburn and A. S. Powers; Clerk, Joel Ware; Sheriff, William Brattan; Treasurer, E. P. Henderson.

A correspondent informs us that the reason of the late tirade of abuse heaped upon the temperance men of Baker City by the editor of the Bedrock Democrat was the refusal of the doorkeeper to admit said editor to a festival given by the Good Templars unless he should come down with the "kale seed."

From the Statesman we learn that a gentleman who has traveled over a large portion of Polk and Yamhill counties reports everything moving smoothly. The show for a large crop was never better, and farmers are all in excellent spirits. Wheat and other crops are nearly all in, and the weather just what they might desire.

A correspondent wants to know in just what amount Oregon has been profited by the late rains. We give it up. Nor do we know just how much time people have spent in Oregon and Washington Territory, within the three years last past, in looking for the termini of the different railroads now being built on our northwest coast.

A Yamhill county paper says: "From all parts of the county we have word of great activity in sowing spring grain, especially wheat. The fine weather came rather late, but it was steady, and everybody took advantage of it. The rain last week helped matters, and altogether we look for the biggest crop ever harvested in the county."

The West Side says: "The surveyors on the West Side Railroad have run another line passing on the west side of Wapato Lake, we learn, and are now camped at A. C. Martin's farm. They crossed the Martin place very nearly in the same line as before, and there is hardly room for a doubt that the point for terminus has been selected, and that it will be on the land recently purchased by Ben Holladay."

The Statesman says: "We have a letter from Corvallis giving some account of the Republican meeting at that place on Thursday evening. Speeches were made by Colonel Kelsey, F. A. Chenoweth and Ben Simpson, and the writer says everything was lovely and lively. The Republicans of Benton are on the war-path, and they will take every Democratic scalp on election day. Bets on that are as safe as coin in the bank."

On Saturday last the Republican primary held at Hillsboro elected the following delegates to the County Convention to be held at that place on the 27th inst.: H. B. Morgan, T. D. Humphreys, G. Kellogg, W. O. Gibson, L. Patterson, J. D. Merryman, W. R. Jackson, C. D. Wilcox, Thomas Stewart, J. B. Bingham and W. E. Smith. John Kirts and Riley Cave were nominated for Justices of the Peace, and M. S. Daily and H. C. Raymond for Constables.

The Linn County Republican Convention made the following nominations last Saturday: Representatives, M. C. George, M. C. Cunningham, A. E. Ellis, J. R. Smith and S. W. Redman; County Judge, S. C. Irvine; Commissioners, Joseph Laine and Nathan Bond; County Clerk, Charles P. Hogue; Sheriff, H. M. Brown; Treasurer, E. B. Purdom; Assessor, R. G. Cusick; School Superintendent, John Fishay; Surveyor, Cyrus Clingman; Coroner, J. R. McClure.

Pursuant to previous notice the Republican County Convention of Tillamook met on the 13th of April at Lincoln. John Terwilliger was chosen Chairman, and W. Smith, Secretary. Following nominations were made: Joint Representative, Samuel Corwin; Sheriff, F. A. White; County Clerk, R. L. Renshaw; County Treasurer, Isaac Quick; Assessor, George Dean; School Superintendent, John Tripp; Surveyor, S. Hardman; Coroner, W. Smith. George W. Blackwell, Wm. St. Johns and Stephen Scoville were appointed a County Central Committee.

The Republicans of Grant county held their Convention on the 11th instant, and made the following nominations: For the Legislature, C. N. Thornbury and Samuel Johnson; Sheriff, William Grey; County Clerk, William Wilson; County Treasurer, Charles Castle; School Superintendent, —— Holmes; County Commissioners, David Luce and ——; Coroner, Dr. E. P. Tierney. The Convention passed off harmoniously, and the selection of candidates seems to give entire satisfaction. Owing to some trouble in the Democratic ranks, the Republicans are very sanguine of electing their whole ticket.

A good degree of prosperity seems to exist among the Indians on the Grand Ronde Reservation. They are engaged in planting an unusually large crop of potatoes, vegetables and corn this season. The disaffection which was manifested by them some time ago at the frequent changes of agents has subsided in a great measure, and they have gone to work with a purpose. The saw mill on the Reservation has been repaired, and is in fine running condition, and the old dilapidated huts are being repaired, or new ones built. Mr. P. B. Sinnott has taken charge of the Reservation.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The following items are culled from the Victoria Colonist:

Victoria returned thanks on the 15th inst. for the recovery of Albert Edward from his late sick spell.

Joseph Manion, who had several ribs broken at Burrard Inlet, is doing well under Dr. Trew's treatment.

The bark Notre Dame de la Providence sailed April 13th from Victoria for Callao. Two or three of the crew had to be put in irons before the anchor was raised.

A heavy snow storm prevailed at Nanaimo and Chemainus on the 12th of April. The ground was covered with snow.

Color Sergeant Gill, of the British garrison on San Juan Island, cut his throat a few days ago while in a fit of despondency, and his recovery is doubtful. Sergeant Gill is a most exemplary soldier, and has served many years.

Tenders for the carriage of Her Majesty's mails twice a month, by steamships of not less than 700 tons, between Victoria, British Columbia, and San Francisco, for any term from one to five years, commencing on and from the 1st of August next, are asked.

The surveys and explorations in British Columbia and on the other side of the Rocky Mountains having resulted in the conclusion that the Leather Pass is the most advantageous in all respects for a line of railway through that great range, the railroad survey operations have been entirely reorganized with the object of determining [illegible] the best line by that route between Kamloops and Jasper House.

Sam. Brannan publishes in the Calistoga [illegible] the following account of the discovery of gold in California: "[illegible] connection with Marshall, Weimer and Bennett to put up a saw mill in the fall of 1847, on the south fork of the American river, where the town of Coloma now stands. Having a store at the fort at that time, I agreed to furnish them with all the necessary supplies on Sutter's account, until the mill was in running order, otherwise they would not have taken the contract. On the 19th of January, 1848, when Marshall let the water into the mill race, and the water had run clear, he picked up a piece of gold—or what he supposed to be gold—at the bottom of the race and gave it to the wife of Weimer, his partner, who was there cooking for the men, and it is still in her possession at Santa Barbara, where she buried her husband a short time since. A number of young men from the Mormon Battalion were at work on the mill for Marshall & Co., all of whom left their work and commenced washing out gold, and that was the end of the mill building. Marshall, Weimer, Bennett and Capt. Sutter claimed the right to the discovery, and charged every one who worked there ten per cent of what they found. Some of the boys became dissatisfied and went prospecting down the river for themselves, and found good diggings about twenty five miles below, on an island which has ever since been known as Mormon Island. I put up a store there and called the place Natoma, after the name of the Indians who lived there. I also put up a store at the mill and called the place Coloma, after the name of the tribe there."

Still Another Remarkable Cure

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—Gentlemen: Four years I was afflicted with Rheumatism and tried all the known remedies, but experienced nothing more than a temporary relief, the disease always returning. Some months since I concluded to take your Unk Weed Remedy, and the result was a speedy and Permanent Cure, the Rheumatism being entirely eradicated from the system. The "UNK" is also a Tonic of the very highest order. It increases the appetite, and invigorates the body. I cheerfully bear testimony to its good effect upon me, and feel sure that it will do all you claim for it.

Very truly yours,
J. W. TRIPP,

CITY.

Stood the Test.—Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Chief Engineer Williams tested several lengths of carbolized hose under the inspection of the Committee on Fire and Water. The engines chosen to make the test of strength were the steamers belonging to Multnomah No. 2 and Protection No. 4. The hose was subjected to a high pressure—about 145 pounds to every square inch. It withstood the force of the water without shedding a drop or showing the least signs of giving way. This was a severe trial of its strength, as the ordinary leather hose is rarely submitted to a greater pressure than [illegible] pounds to the inch. Carbolized hose is made of canvas and India rubber—consisting of three thicknesses of each. It is much more capable of standing heavy degrees of pressure than leather hose. There is one drawback, however, to this new hose and that is, it is more liable to give way at some point where the pipe has been twisted and its texture weakened or broken. At such places it would be likely to burst with the force of the crowded water. In the event that a breakage should occur, the leather hose could be repaired with less trouble or expense. As far as the test was conducted on Saturday, the result was very satisfactory. This new kind of hose has recently been introduced in the Fire Department of San Fr[illegible]. Should it prove all that is claimed in its favor, it will probably supplant in Portland the leathery hose, so long in use. Elasticity and strength are the principal points required and if the carbolized hose secure these important ends, it should be adopted by our Fire Department.

The Joys Lost.—Yesterday being a propitious day for promenades and spirited dashes along the streets, we observed a number enjoying the clear sky and balmy air in that manner. A Miss L. B. Jader and her sister were conspicuous in their mode of killing time by dashing about the streets with a furious disregard to the proprieties of the sacred day, or the rights of those who chose to walk. To strictly preserve the equilibrium of their minds, a little too much benzine had been [illegible], and as for that matter, they held the immutable laws of gravitation in very slight regard. In order to move skillfully and "curb the steed and guide the wheel," each took one line. This new style of driving didn't prove a success, for in making a dive around a corner, benzine, and a contempt for gravitation, got the advantage and they were placed in danger of life and limb. The [illegible] and an accommodating lamp post gently collided with the vehicle, and the Miss[illegible] were scattered around in a manner which [illegible] a variety of dry goods at one and the same time. At this juncture, a heroic youth who had [illegible] the proceedings, rushed frantically [illegible] and stopped the horses. He who performs a courageous act is not always a benefactor [illegible], for by it we are spared chronicling a[illegible] sequel and the undertaker has lost a job.

Cir. Court.—The term of Circuit Court for [illegible] county closed on last Friday, after a short session. Since the publication of the last [illegible] few days ago, the following additional [illegible] were had:

Foster vs McNally et al, action on account, [illegible] for plaintiff for $67 38.

[illegible] vs Caples, action on account, verdict for [illegible] for $137.

State of Oregon vs J. Gemmo, larceny, verdict of not guilty.

State of Oregon vs J. W. [illegible], assault with a [illegible] weapon, jury failed to agree.

[illegible] vs R. Williams, cause submitted and taken under advisement.

State of Oregon vs Benjamin Noan, William Noon, Oscar Hunter and George Fowler, abduction; [illegible] to indictment taken under advisement.

[illegible] Tenpain.—This steamer reached here yesterday afternoon from Sitka and way ports. [illegible]—Left Portland April 2d, at 1 30 A M, arrived at Astoria at 11 15 A M on the 2d; arrived in Neah Bay at 6.50 A M on the 4th; arrived at Port Townsend at 7.30 A M, arrived at San Juan Island at 7 P M, arrived at [illegible] on the 9th at 10 A M., arrived at Tongas on the 11th at 5 A. M, arrived at Sitka [illegible]. Left Sitka at 4.20 P M; arrived at Tongas on the 15th at 3 A M; arrived in Nanaimo at on the 17th at 5 45 P M. arrived at San Juan on the 19th at 2-15 A. M, passed Cape Flattery at 1.20 P. M, crossed the Columbia river bar on the 20th at 1-15 P M., arrived at Portland on the 21st at 5:45 A. M.

[illegible]—Col Luddington, Maj Walker, Ed Pilkington, Capt Sherbourne, D Shirpser.

Track Raising.—A gang of Chinamen are [illegible] in raising the railroad track south of the [illegible] work in East Portland. The track is being raised with earth taken from the excavation below the east side depot. It will be elevated from the end of the trestle work to a point where the intersection with the new line east of [illegible] house, will be effected. That portion of the track traverses a piece of lowland, [illegible] inundated during the high waters of [illegible] July. Railroad communication, when the track is laid, will be uninterrupted during high stage of water.

The Windward.—This ship was towed down [illegible] last from Stephens & Moffett's wharf to McCraken's wharf. She was taken down to the lower wharf to receive her masts and [illegible] rigging. On Saturday we were informed that the Windward had been sold to parties in San Francisco for the sum of $7,000, and that a captain to take her below was on his way from San Francisco. Should this prove true, the vessel will probably receive a 'jury rigging' here, [illegible] to sail down, and be permanently rigged there, as the cost will be less than here.

Alaska Cedar.—Parset Weldler, of the [illegible] Gussie Telfair, showed us yesterday a small [illegible] sheet manufactured of Alaskian cedar. The grain of the wood was very fine and [illegible] of receiving a high degree of polish. The wood was so smooth and the workmanship so neat, that it [illegible]ed as if it had been polished up with paint and varnish, though neither had been used. Some of this wood was brought over on the Telfair and will be manufactured into a small row boat by an enterprising young gentleman of this city.

Gave Way.—On Saturday, during the trial of the new carbolized hose, at the corner of Stark and First streets, a portion of the leather hose [illegible] to Protection No. 4 gave way when [illegible] to the very heavy pressure. The bursted section was taken off and the nozzle fastened to the end of the new hose. Although there was but the amount of pipe nearly double the amount of hose was applied to the new hose without its bursting. This will serve to illustrate the relative [illegible] of the two kinds of hose to resist [illegible].

Helen W. Almy.—The bark Helen W. Almy arrived here on Saturday afternoon, in tow of the Merrimac. She brought a large cargo of general merchandise. The Almy sailed from San [illegible] on the 1st of April. Columbia river [illegible]ed in sixteen days. Throughout the voyage stormy northwest winds were experienced. She is discharging cargo at Flanders' wharf.

To Deliver the Address.—M. W. Fechheimer, Esq., has been selected by the several Odd Fellow Lodges of this city to deliver the address at the grand celebration of that Order at East Portland on the 26th inst. Mr. Fechheimer is a young [illegible] of considerable literary attainments, and will doubtless acquit himself in a very [illegible]ner.

Beef Cattle.—The Dixie Thompson brought down on Saturday from the Cascades, 28 head of [illegible] cattle. They came from the extensive grazing regions east of the Dalles. Immediately on their arrival here they were placed on board the E. N. Cooke and taken to Oregon City to supply the market.

Merrimac.—This steam tug towed up the H[illegible] on Saturday and returned at once to Astoria to bring up one of the vessels reported off the bar. The [illegible] on Saturday to bring over the ve[illegible]

Hand Crushed.—A small boy [illegible] hand while handling [illegible] Saturday evening had [illegible] a piece falling. He was taken [illegible] and badly mashed.

Returned.—Judge [illegible] returned on Saturday, having [illegible] the [illegible] Court for Columbia county. [illegible] from the city [illegible]

Base Ball.—A game [illegible] indulged in [illegible] "[illegible]" and [illegible] The former won by 22 [illegible]

"Lo" on the War Trail.—On Sunday morning about 1 o'clock a drunken brawl occurred on the Indian rancho below the city, in which one of the belligerents received a serious injury It appears that an Indian known here as "Jim" got hold of whisky on Saturday night Fight is the upper instinct generally in "Lo's" mind when benzine is 'aboard.' Actuated by a natural thirst for blood, he started down to a rancho below the city, where a very quiet, peaceable "Indian" lived When he reached the door of the hut, the inmate heard the drunken wretch coming and arose to meet him He was met at the threshold by "Jim," who proceeded to carve his friend in a very deliberate manner. In the melee, "Jim" stabbed the other redskin in the right arm, nearly severing the "brachial artery" The wounded Indian started for the city to have him arrested. He succeeded in reaching the corner of Front and Oak streets, when he sank down and fainted from the loss of blood Here the policeman found him He was removed to the city jail, and Dr Ryan called The wound was dressed and the blood staunched, but not until the Indian had nearly bled to death An officer was immediately sent down to arrest the offender He was found, and is now lodged in the jail "Jim" is known to be a turbulent and dangerous Indian when under the influence of liquor, having served out a term in the penitentiary for stabbing a boy some years ago.

Our Public Schools.—The adjourned meeting of School District No. 1, to be held in the Central School room this evening, will afford the legal voters and their numerous friends an opportunity of showing, by their attendance and earnestness, their appreciation of one of our most valuable institutions. If the youth of our land are universally and well educated, the integrity, unity and progress of our country are guaranteed No internal enemy or external foe can do us any permanent harm

What our city wants in reference to the Public Schools is more accommodation for the children, a first class teacher of vocal music who will devote the necessary time to give a lesson in each department of all the Public Schools every day, and the necessary funds voted to enable the Board of Education to accomplish these important objects

Our Public Schools are the life blood of the State Every parent and good citizen are interested in this great subject that affects the vital interests of each family and the whole community Let there be a large meeting this evening, full of earnestness and unity of purpose, to sustain in a liberal and generous manner our Public Schools at all hazards and under all circumstances

A Useful Tunnel.—Workmen are engaged in excavating a tunnel from the bank of the river to effect a junction with Couch's Lake The excavation has been commenced under the saw mill opposite the foot of L Street. It will run in a course south of west, and form a connection with the waters of the lake immediately under Halsey's new hotel Asphaltum pipes will be used to convey the waters away to the river. By this means, that filthy body can be drained during the summer months or, when the river is lower than the lake and may thus save the city much sickness If, precaution had been observed in filling out G Street, to have placed several tunnels through the dyke so as to have allowed the waters above and below to connect the entire sheet could have been drained by the proposed tunnel leading to the river

First Hebrew Benevolent Society.—A meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the members of the First Hebrew Benevolent Society of Portland, for the election of officers for the ensuing year The Society is officered as follows Pres ident, B Goldsmith Vice President L Fleischner, Treasurer Charles Kohel Recording Secretary L Baum Financial Secretary J Fleischman C H Lewis and L Loewenberg were elected to serve as Trustees for three years, and L Lowenburg as a Trustee for one year

AMUSEMENTS.

Complimentary Benefit.—The citizens of Portland proprietors of the theater and members of the company have unitedly tendered to Manager Waldron a grand complimentary benefit The time appointed by the beneficiary is to morrow evening place Oro Fino Theater, and play that of Self, [illegible] of New York. It is but a just tribute to the ability perseverance tact and popularity of this actor to add that he has by the utmost endeavors furnished the public legitimate amusement during the past winter The people cannot more substantially show their appreciation of Mr Waldron's efforts to sustain the theater for the several months past than by giving him a crowded hall. Financially the past season has been a decided success and the present season now drawing near its close has been accorded a very encouraging measure of patronage. These past successes should be met with a correspondingly liberal support at the hands of all admirers of the histrionic art. Mr Waldron is among the "princely few" good actors who have visited this city He is an artist in the most critical construction of the term and constantly endeavors to acquire by persistent study what nature has denied to those but most favorite masters of the drama For past, present and prospective services as an expert caterer to the tastes of theater-goers he has a strong claim on this public which, it is to be hoped, will cheerfully and heartily redeem whenever opportunity may present

The Calico Ball.—Under the auspices of the Emmet Guard, the first Grand Calico ball of the Season will be given at Philharmonic Hall to-morrow evening From the names of the reliable gentlemen who have been placed on the several committees the affair promises to be one of unusual interest and pleasure

Against the Tide.

Against the tide—ah me! against the tide
No slightest wave but drifts me back to shore;
Though straining every nerve, I still abide,
With strength all spent just where I was before.

Why could I not have stayed upon the shore,
To pick up shining pebbles in the sun!
Instead of [illegible] at the useless oar
To sleep in peace when the day's sport was done.

My longing heart [illegible] such rest to me
Though I [illegible] the goal that lies before,
But [illegible] wrestling with the wind and sea
And lie [illegible] upon the oar.

Mark Twain's First Earthquake.

A month after I landed in Sacramento I enjoyed my first earthquake. It was one which was long called the great earthquake, and it is doubtless so distinguished till this day. It was just after noon, on a bright October day. I was coming down Third Street. The only objects in motion anywhere in sight in the thickly-built and populous quarter were a man in a buggy behind me and a street-car wending slowly up the cross street. Otherwise all was solitude and a Sabbath stillness. As I turned the corner around a frame house, there was a great rattle-jar, and it occurred to me that here was an item—no doubt a fight in the house. Before I could turn and seek the door there came a really terrific shock; the ground seemed to roll under me in waves, interrupted by a violent juggling up and down, and there was a heavy grinding noise of brick houses rubbing together. I fell up against the house and hurt my elbow. I knew what it was now, and from mere repertorial instinct, nothing else, took out my watch and noted the time of day; at that moment a third and still severer shock came, and as I reeled about on the pavement, trying to keep my footing, I saw a sight! The entire front of a tall four-story brick building on Third street sprang out like a door and fell sprawling across the street, raising a dust like a great volume of smoke. And here came the buggy—overboard went the man, and in less than I can tell it the whole vehicle was distributed in small fragments along 300 yards of street. One could have fancied that somebody had fired a charge of chair rounds and rags down the thoroughfare. The street car had stopped, the horses were rearing and plunging, and passengers were pouring out at both ends, and one man had crushed half way through a glass window on one side of the car, got wedged fast, and was squirming and screaming like an impaled madman. Every door of every house, as far as the eye could reach, was vomiting a stream of human beings; and almost before one could execute a wink and begin another, there was a massed multitude of people stretching in endless procession down every street my position commanded. Never was solemn solitude turned into teeming life quicker. Of the wonders wrought by "the great earthquake," these were all that came under my eye; but the tricks it did elsewhere, and far and wide over the town, made toothsome gossip for nine days. The destruction of property was trifling—the injury to it was widespread and somewhat serious. The "curiosities" of the earthquake were simply endless. Gentlemen and ladies who were sick, or were taking a siesta, or had dissipated till a late hour, and were making up lost sleep, thronged the public streets in all sorts of queer apparel and some without any at all. One woman who had been washing a naked child, ran down the street holding it by the ankles as if it were a dressed turkey. Prominent citizens, who were supposed to keep the Sabbath strictly, rushed out of saloons in their shirt-sleeves, with billiard cues in their hands. Dozens of men with necks swathed in napkins rushed from barber shops, lathered to the eyes, or with one cheek clean shaved and the other still bearing a hairy stubble. Horses broke from their stables, and a frightened dog rushed up a short attic ladder and out on a roof, and when his scare was over had not the nerve to go down again the same way he had gone up. A prominent editor flew down stairs in the principal hotel, with nothing on but a brief under garment—met a chamber-maid and exclaimed, "Oh, what shall I do? Where shall I go?" She responded with naive serenity, "If you have a choice, you might try a clothing store!"—The Innocents at Home.

The Cincinnati Soreheads.

A FRESH CONFERENCE OF PLOTTERS — GRATZ BROWN AND GREELEY TO BE NOMINATED—DAVIS AND TRUMBULL NOWHERE.

[Washington dispatch (April 3) to the New York Times.]

There was a private conference yesterday of half a dozen of the Cincinnati Conventionists, and a further scheme of plotting was agreed upon. The most important thing that has been developed in this direction, however, is the vigorous and persistent push which Gratz Brown and his friends are making for the nomination at that Convention. It is now [illegible] that this effort is systematic, earnest and vigorous, and what is more, that it has every prospect of success. Brown's friends claim that he will have more positive strength than any other man who will be presented, and this is undoubtedly true, for he will be pressed urgently by Missouri, which State will be more largely represented in the Convention than any other. Then he will have the support of Kentucky and Tennessee, and also that of the principal men of the movement from Ohio, who have already declared that they cannot support Davis or Trumbull. This renders Brown's friends very [illegible], and very naturally they are contemplating the [illegible] for the second place on the ticket. Having in view the adjustment of sectional difficulties, and with the idea of getting Republican strength, they have resolved to bring out Mr. Greeley as the candidate for Vice President. This arrangement, they believe, will adjust every interest, both of principle and locality, and prove the strongest combination that can be formed. The public may therefore rest assured that the cry of the majority of the Convention will be "Gratz Brown and Greeley." This arrangement suits all the Conventionists here save the few friends of Judge Davis, and they are expected soon to fall in, as, since his nomination has been repudiated so emphatically by the leading labor reform organizations, he is fast being abandoned as an impracticable candidate. It is now conceded that there is no chance for Trumbull, notwithstanding his strong desire, the majority of the movers regarding him as even more impracticable than Judge Davis, especially with the labor reformers, while he is vastly more open to assault in respect to his Senatorial record.

The Statesman gets off this: A virtuous youth of the name of Teal, who is poor but honest, being a victim of Federal contracts with reference to beef, as also of sundry Democratic jobs in modern times, have developed into the man "with a grievance." Joe unbosomed himself at Albany recently in a speech which the Democrat pronounces the best thing of the season. He is opposed to monopolies, Joseph is; likewise does he bewail the grasping ambition of Holladay. Joseph, in fact, finds but one oasis in the desert of political devastation and moral degeneracy—the Lock and Dam Swindle. Here the saintly beef contractor furls his weary wings and warbles infinite adoration. J. T. intimates, with exquisite pathos, that he has made up his mind to meet the several members of the Dam, &c., Swindle Co., somewhere in the thoroughfares of the New Jerusalem (they will need locks of a different kind, even there, if J. T.'s expectation is fulfilled), and boldly proclaims that future generations of Oregonians will bless the memory of Grover, Miller, Teal, et al. Considering that the generations aforesaid will find themselves swindled out of $75,000 school money by these gentlemen, we, too, are of the opinion that their immortality is assured.

A facetious writer says: The people who live in Elmira are called inhabitants. I called on one of 'em. He keeps a corner blue-and-red-light castor oil shop. I was trying to get him to give me a bigger lot of peppermint for a cent, when in rushed a fellow who called for a pound of camphor, and downed the whole of it. It was a surprise to me, and I said, "What did he do that for?" "Why," said drugs, "he is lined." "Lined," says I, "what's that?" Then he told me a story of mock turtle soup. Some years since a gentleman, who was about to give a dinner party, spent a whole week showing his servant how to make mock turtle soup. When the day came she made the mock and the turtle and the soup all right, and just as she was about to pour in a bottle of claret a little boy entered, singing "Everything is lovely when the goose hang high," which distracted her attention, and she made a mistake and poured in a whole bottle of hair tonic. "Did it make hare soup?" said I meekly. "Alas!" said he, "the results were sad." "What were the results?" said I. "Ah," said he, "two went to the morgue, four to the hospital, and all who did not die were called the survivors, and that fellow you just saw was one of 'em." "What does he swallow so much camphor for?" says I. "Well," he said, "that to me starts the hair growing down his throat, and he took the camphor to keep the moths out." I told that fellow there was more in him than there was in a bar of soap, and left.

A Western orator thus winds up a definition of eternity: "Why, my friends, after millions and millions of years had rolled away in eternity, it would be a hundred thousand years to breakfast time."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, April 20, 1872.

Gold in New York, [illegible].

Greenbacks, 90c buying and 91c selling.

The H. W. Almy reached here Saturday afternoon from San Francisco. She brings 550 tons assorted cargo. List of consignees below.

Sparkling Dew has about one-half completed her cargo. It is thought she will be ready to sail by Wednesday.

The ship Loch Dee, Miller master, bound directly from Liverpool to Portland, with an assorted cargo, was to have sailed from the former port on the 1st. She has a registered capacity of 700 tons.

Barkentine Amelia is at Flanders' wharf, and will soon be ready to receive a return cargo.

The schooner Augusta, with a cargo of produce from Tillamook is in the river and has probably arrived by the time this reaches the reader.

As the Gussie Telfair crossed the bar the brig Brewster was seen, bound out. Three other vessels bound in were seen, but were neither spoken or recognized.

The Gussie Telfair reached here Sunday morning from Sitka. She brought four passengers, 100 tons of coal and 13 tons of oil, furs, etc.

The steamship Oriflamme sailed from San Francisco this (Saturday) morning for Portland.

Spear & Jackson's Files have advanced 20 per cent.; Run Locks, 15 per cent.; tacks, 50 per cent. Within the last few days Norway Iron has advanced ½ per cent.; rape tomatoes firm at 20c. Nails looking up, quoting firm at $7.

The Oregon Woolen Mills have entered at San Francisco, to be transhipped in bond to Portland, fifty-two bales of Australian Wool, amounting to about 24,000 lbs. It will doubtless reach here in a few days.

During the last four months pig iron has advanced fully $30 a ton. The supply on this coast is reduced very low. One reason given for the great rise in iron, both in England and America, is the advanced rates of wages generally demanded. Eight-hour leagues, etc., all contribute to lessen the production, while the great demand for railroad iron, etc., makes the actual consumption greater than the production. It is certain that money might be made by starting up the blast furnace at Oswego. It would be gratifying to hear that this would be done, and that more furnaces would be built.

A financial writer at San Francisco, speaking of the amount of loanable funds on the market there, says: "Capitalists evince some eagerness to place their funds in first-class 9 per cent. paying securities while pretending to hold out for 9 and 10 per cent. The competition is, moreover, becoming so sharp that but little embarrassment is caused to parties offering that class of securities. The terms required by commercial banks are 1 per cent. per month, but the savings societies furnish money at 8@10 per cent. per annum. Large sums are held by private parties either on their own account or consigned to them by foreign owners desirous of investing in Pacific Coast offerings. These private hoards are quietly occupying the more promising fields, much to the disgust and surprise of our long established money-lenders who seem to be barnacled all over with the conceit that this market belongs exclusively to them, and refuse to comprehend the nature of the encroachments upon their domain until the golden opportunity has slipped from their effete grasp. The logical result is that cheaper money is promoting enterprise, and our industrial resources have received a healthful impulse beneficial to all classes."

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies.

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, framing and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and decrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth, and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion, and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our local laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the workingmen liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sure foundation and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of Legislature by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy-five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settler, and given without limit or pretext of compensation to the land grabber and speculator, whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased [illegible] by the creation of new and [illegible] offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived [illegible] of the right of controlling their [illegible] authority. And we regard [illegible] the administration of our State [illegible] and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. [illegible]

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called [illegible] act, which was devised to support proper [illegible] party newspapers of the [illegible].

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the [illegible] to Portland, and from Jackson county to [illegible], and [illegible] representatives to the support of the [illegible].

12. That the [illegible] without being [illegible] of persons to [illegible] Oregon which [illegible] of the [illegible] taxation the Republican party recognizes the rights and duty of the law to [illegible] and limit the evils and abuses [illegible] for the [illegible] of [illegible] persons, [illegible].

13. That the Republican party of Oregon [illegible] General Government for the [illegible] to the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party [illegible] prosperity [illegible] our people [illegible] seven States, to our Territories [illegible] State life, to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery [illegible] prosperity everywhere [illegible] pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their conventions in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party have contended for the last ten years, and in the "Passive Policy" of that party already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopeless [illegible] success in the coming Presidential campaign.

Ordinance No. 1151.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of North Twelfth street, lying between B and K streets.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of North Twelfth street, lying between the center of B street and the center of K street, shall be completed as hereinafter provided on or before the first day of September, 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank, timber or other obstacles or perishable materials, sidewalks, crosswalks and plank roadways of the proper width and grade excepted. If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading, laying sidewalks, crosswalks and putting in brick and stone culvert across Tanner's creek.

Section 4. The work to be done and materials furnished for grading and laying sidewalks and crosswalks shall correspond with the provisions and restrictions contained in sections 6, 7, 8, 11 and 12 of Ordinance 796, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The culvert in that part of North Twelfth street, crossed or occupied by Tanner's creek, shall be built according to a plan on file in the Auditor's office, marked "Plan of Culvert for Tanner's Creek," the specifications for which are as follows: "Excavate the width of the sewer from outside to outside of stone wall at least six inches below the bottom of the water in the creek, and deeper if necessary to procure a good foundation, build the foundation wall of stone, as shown on the plan, two feet high, the stone to be of the best quality from Oregon quarries now used in foundations in this city; all stone work to be laid without mortar, or what is called a dry wall, care to be taken that the wall be laid in the best manner, properly bound together and faced up on the inside; the wall to be twenty-four inches thick at the base and sixteen inches at the top; the rubble work in the bottom of the culvert to be six inches thick, the stone laid to lap over each other in such a manner as to be least liable to wash or be displaced by water. The brick work of the arch to be twelve inches, or one and a half brick in thickness, and to be laid up in cement mortar for two feet on each side, the remainder of the brick work to be laid up in good lime mortar; all brick to be laid with full beds and all joints daubed up full of mortar, the joints to be neatly struck and neatly pointed on the under side of the arch. The brick to be of the best quality and hard burned; the cement and mortar also to be of the best quality. The culvert is to be eight feet wide and five and one-half feet high, from the bottom to the under side of the arch, as shown in the plan hereinbefore referred to."

Section 6. The contractor shall take notice charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident occasioned by carelessness or neglect.

Section 7. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Section 8. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council April 3, 1872.

W. S. CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved April 6, 1872. PHILIP WASSERMAN, Mayor.
